Visit has been one of unalloyed delight —
beyond my most sanguine expectations. My welcome from Mrs L & Pestle
has been bi = fold better than I deserve. I wish you could have been with me to have partaken yourself of the choicest Entertainment of the land.

Yours Ever, Theodore Tilton of them in the Constitution.

But in the Southern States, where tens of Thousands (white & black) "don't know B from a bulls' foot," I think the ballot ought to be constitutionally denied & all such till they learn to read.

— My wife & the radicals of the State. The plan herein suggested seems to me a necessary precaution in remodeling the institutions of the Southern States. In Massachusetts, for instance, a few persons are unable to read but no notice need be taken

Private

Cincinnati,
Jan. 11. 1865.

My dear Mr. Garrison,

I have thought you might be interested in seeing the Enclosed Letter. I have studied Missouri affairs on the spot, having had full conferences in St. Louis with the leading